Sir,

Sub: Implementation of e-Platform for Industrial Guidance Bureau, Govt. of Pondicherry

Ref: Pondicherry Electronics Ltd. Order PEL/66/SUGBN for IN.Dept/2004
dated March 25, 2004

The e-Platform for Industrial Guidance Bureau (IGB), a customized tool of 'e-Administration', a web enabled, platform neutral, Less paper Office Tool, developed using Open Source Tools, such as Java, Jboss, My SQL, all running on Linux, has been satisfactorily implemented by LL2B.COM Pvt. Ltd., Chennai, in the District Industries Centre, Directorate of Industries and Commerce, Govt. of Pondicherry.

The e-Platform integrates 20 Departments such as Inspectorate of Factories & Boilers, Town & Country Planning, Pondicherry Planning Authority, Dept. of Science, Tech, & Environment, Electricity, Revenue, Agriculture, Printing & Stationery, etc. and Local Bodies such as Municipalities and Commune Panchayats, for establishing a seamless communication, through a simple dial-up line, with a central server located at DIC, from their respective locations, to grant a time bound clearance of application received from prospective industrialists, to set-up industries in Pondicherry.

Besides the above stakeholders, the e-Platform has been prepared in consultation with CII and Association of Small Industries of U.T of Pondicherry, the organizations representing the interest of industries in Pondicherry. This initiative would particularly benefit Small and Medium enterprises.

The Support Engineers of LL2B.COM have trained all the officers and staff of all the departments involved in IGB clearances. DIC has sought the services of LL2B.COM in further training / hand-holding of Trainees recruited by DIC and placed in various Departments, for smooth functioning of IGB.

The user departments have sought additional services of DIC / LL2B.COM, to extend the working of IGB, to integrate their departmental approval process, for further simplifying / speeding up the process of clearances.

While we thank LL2B.COM, for the services rendered, we seek the kind cooperation and support of LL2B.COM, in further enhancing the services rendered, by integrating the Departmental activities, connected with IGB.

Yours faithfully,

(S. VEERABADRASAMY)
